One of the park's biggest draws is the plethora of fascinating wildlife that calls it home. Keep your eyes peeled for the iconic American alligator as you wander along the serene trails. These magnificent reptiles can be spotted basking in the sun or gracefully gliding through the water, adding a touch of excitement to your adventure. Marvel at the remarkable bird species that inhabit the park, such as the colorful Painted Bunting or the elegant Great Blue Heron.

Unleash Your Inner Explorer

If you're up for a thrilling outdoor experience, lace up your hiking boots and embark on one of the park's numerous trails. Whether you are a casual stroller or an experienced trekker, you'll find a trail that suits your level of expertise. Traverse through dense forests, open meadows, and tranquil wetlands as the tranquil sounds of nature surround you.

One of the park's most famous routes is the Creekfield Lake Nature Trail, where you'll discover a stunning boardwalk that extends out over the water. Wander along this path to witness breathtaking sunsets reflecting off the glistening surface of the lake. Don't forget your camera to capture memories that will last a lifetime.

Immerse in Nature's Playground

Brazos Bend State Park is not just about hiking and wildlife spotting. It also offers various recreational activities to satisfy outdoor enthusiasts of all ages. Bring along your fishing gear for a chance to catch largemouth bass, catfish, or crappie in one of the park's serene lakes. Pack a picnic and enjoy an afternoon under the shade of the towering live oak trees.

If camping is your cup of tea, the park provides well-maintained campsites equipped with essential amenities. Falling asleep under a starlit sky, serenaded by the sounds of nature, is an experience you won't soon forget.

Plan Your Visit

Brazos Bend State Park is located just a short drive from Houston, making it an excellent day trip destination or a weekend getaway. The park offers ample parking facilities and a visitor center where you can obtain detailed information about the trails and wildlife.

Before setting off on your adventure, make sure to pack essentials such as sunblock, bug spray, water bottles, and comfortable footwear. The Texas climate can be unforgiving, so dress accordingly and stay hydrated throughout your exploration.

Preserving Nature's Treasure

Brazos Bend State Park tirelessly commits to preserving the delicate ecosystems within it. It is crucial for visitors to respect and adhere to all park regulations. Remember to stay on designated trails, dispose of trash responsibly, and refrain from disturbing the wildlife.

As you leave this captivating natural sanctuary, take a moment to reflect on the splendor you experienced and the importance of protecting our planet's precious treasures.

Visit Brazos Bend State Park, where an unforgettable wilderness adventure awaits at every turn. Explore, discover, and reconnect with nature in all its untamed beauty.

This original photographic collection includes wildlife photographs taken by August Farrow between January 1st and December 31st 2021.

This is not a book to showcase my photography. It's a photo collection highlighting the wildlife that was actually seen at this location during this period. It's not what could potentially exist there but wildlife that was actually there, seen and photographed by this visitor.

This title includes full color images. For the best experience possible, view this title in color on your color-enabled Kindle device OR download the free Kindle app to view this title on your smart phone, tablet, laptop, netbook or computer!

In this book, I will give you the exact same experience I have had – that of walking through nature and stumbling across a variety of flora and fauna without labels or descriptions.

Rather than a reference book, this is more of a photographic catalog of my observations during the time I spent there that year. Though that isn't a lot of time, I have a special knack for stumbling across an astonishing amount of wildlife - for being in just the right place at just the right time (at least when it comes to nature). I hope this book will encourage you too to go out and explore the natural world.

Please note: All insects, spiders and other animals depicted are wild or feral.

I photograph things as they are - sometimes under horrible weather conditions such as fog, rain, etc. and I do not use any special equipment. The conditions are what they are at the time.

These images have not been photoshopped or otherwise manipulated in order to depict anything other than what I actually saw in that location at that time. If you see more than one animal in a shot, more than one animal was present at the time and fit into the frame I was shooting. It also takes FOUR programs to create these landscape-oriented books and thus the photograph quality gets degraded each time the photo is run through a new program. Still, I prefer this format so it is what it is.

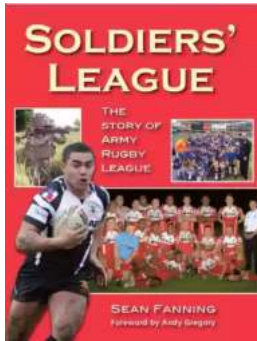

Lastly, I also have a very strict non-interference policy. I do not bait, harass, touch, trap, corner or otherwise impede or restrict wildlife.

Due to limitations in the number of photographs that can successfully be built into a file using this format, different locations may have more than 1 book.

To find specific, additional titles, simply type in August Farrow and a keyword such as a subject (Insects) and/or place (such as Houston) in the search box of the retailer's page.
