A Journey of Love and Dedication

Jennifer's fascination with llamas soon turned into a passion, and she made it her mission to protect and care for these incredible animals. She created a sanctuary, named "Come Llamas," which became a haven for llamas in need of shelter, care, and rehabilitation.

At Come Llamas, Jennifer provides a safe environment where the llamas can live freely and peacefully. The sanctuary houses llamas of all ages, from newborn crias to elderly llamas requiring specialized care. Jennifer's compassionate nature ensures that each llama receives love and attention tailored to their unique needs.

But Jennifer's impact extends beyond providing refuge. She actively participates in educational outreach programs, spreading awareness about llamas and their significance in both their natural habitats and domesticated settings. Her efforts have inspired many to appreciate and protect these remarkable creatures.

It's spring time on the Kinnaman Ranch in Alaska, and nine-year-old JT is sure it will be the best one yet. This season he's determined to become a pitcher on his school's baseball team and to raise his very own llama, just like Grandad promised. When baby llama Elmo is born, JT has all kinds of plans for the first of his herd. Every night after baseball practice, JT trains Elmo. And every morning, the small llama seems to be growing stronger—even as Grandad's persistent cough gets worse and worse.

Then a bear charges through their property, and JT doesn't see how their family will manage. Half their llamas are gone, Elmo's leg is broken, and it's not long before Grandad needs to be rushed to the clinic. But everything's always growing and changing on a llama ranch, and JT will find a way to keep on keeping on and make Grandad proud.
