sand castles! I'm definitely going to build a sand castle."

Liz thought of sand castle-building as an art. She usually made a sketch before she got started. Some days at the beach, she spent hours working on the same sand castle. At home, she had photos of her best ones, taken before the waves had washed them away.

Finally the Jenkins family rolled into town. Liz looked out the window. They passed a playground that looked pretty cool. Liz noticed some kids her age riding bikes. She smiled. She had a feeling this was going to be a fun weekend!

Mrs. Jenkins pulled into the driveway of the cottage. Liz and Stewart raced inside to figure out
