June Mabee is a lot of things.

She's the girl next door.

She's the best friend I ever had.

She was my first kiss, as awkward as it was.

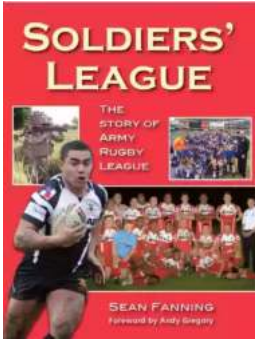

And she's the last person I should have feelings for. Ever.

Two years ago, I cut all ties with her because I had no choice. No more late night phone calls, no hellos or goodbyes, not even a passing smile. I left her to wonder what happened to the us we used to be. We were best friends, and then suddenly...we weren't. And I know it hurt. But the truth would have hurt her more, and being anything with June would have destroyed my family.

For a while, we managed to exist a hundred feet apart with no connection at all. She changed schools. I kept busy. We existed, apart. But no matter how hard I tried to not think about her, I just couldn't stay away from the funny, adventurous, steadfast girl with wild green eyes.

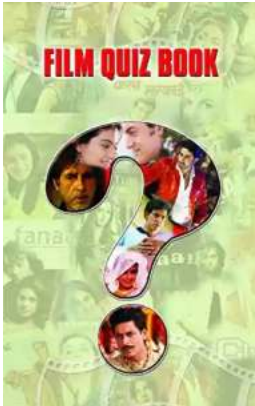

She's back. We're seniors now. We've grown—all of us. And while I might be different, she's different too. She takes risks, stands up for herself and doesn't back down. The more we're forced together, the more I miss her. But for June to be a part of my story, I need to tell her the whole truth, everything that happened. And I'm not sure any of us are ready for that.

* Varsity Captain is a friends-to-lovers, enemies-to-lovers new adult romance told from Lucas Fuller's point of view. It's football, small towns, first love and lots and lots of kissing (and a whole lot more). You do not have to read Varsity Heartbreaker first, but it's super cool if you do. After works too.
