Before figuring out how to get home, Jennifer finds herself further back in time to 1902. She is now on an impoverished farm with difficult chores and "new" parents. The man who thinks he is her dad is mean and she again pretends amnesia. How will she survive this way different life?

How had Jennifer been transported back in time? Why did it happen? Will she be able to get back home again? Or, will she be sent to yet another time period?

Jennifer felt her panic rising again. This was too much. Nineteen fifty-eight was what, about forty years before she had been born! She turned her back to Harriet and Norman, and put her head against the wall, willing herself to stay calm.
