Over the past decade, the Williams family, from Bolton, England have been holidaying in some style in Florida. Each trip has been followed by an honest and hopefully humorous trip report, recounting how a typical British family cope with the magic, the heat, the stresses and the food...oh so much food, on a holiday to The Happiest Place on Earth.

This book is an anthology of all those reports, captured in their original format. Whether you are looking for tips on how to make the most of such a holiday, in some cases guidance on how not to, or you just want an amusing read, you will be entertained and informed in fairly equal measure.

So join Craig, Louise, Emily and Rebecca, along with the occasional guest appearance from wider family members, on the best holidays you never had.
