How far would you go for your favorite dog?

Gigy was an adorable English cocker spaniel puppy. She had everything a puppy could want—a devoted owner, plenty of toys, a big backyard and a special human friend. But when circumstances required, the difficult decision was made to place Gigy with a new family, her heartbroken humans took on a tireless mission to ensure she was safe, loved, and cared for.

Saving Gigy is the inspirational true story of the lengths Gigy's humans were willing to go to in order to make certain she was adopted by the right family, a family who understood how special she was and give her the attention, love, and care she needed. While there was no Hollywood ending to Gigy's story, ILuta Sutra invites you to consider how a little more love and compassion in even the smallest situation can change our world for the better.

If you've ever had a dog, loved a dog, or any other pet for that matter, Saving Gigy will warm your heart and encourage you to embrace the true meaning in life by unleashing the power of love.
