

The Ben And Helen Eidse Story: Discover the Extraordinary Journey of Love, Faith, and Resilience

Once upon a time, in a small town nestled amidst picturesque landscapes, a love story unfolded. It was a story of two souls, Ben and Helen Eidse, whose lives intertwine in a remarkable journey marked by unwavering faith, heartfelt love, and indomitable resilience. As their daughter, Faith Eidse, narrates the extraordinary tale, we are transported into a world where love conquers all, and miracles become a way of life.

In the early 1960s, Ben and Helen met in their hometown of Green Valley. They were two young hearts, eager to explore the world and embrace the adventures life had in store for them. Their love blossomed amidst the serenity of the countryside, where they spent countless evenings stargazing under the vast canvas of the night sky.

Life was blissful, promising a future filled with dreams and aspirations. However, fate had other plans. Just a few years into their marriage, Ben was diagnosed with a debilitating illness that threatened to shatter their dreams. But Ben and Helen stood strong, determined to overcome any obstacle thrown in their path.

From the wheat fields and bargain stores of rural Manitoba, Ben and Helen Eidsen were the first missionaries sent overseas by their conference. On the African savannah they partnered with the Chokwe-Lunda who taught them language, culture and proverbs, which Ben used to explain salvation. Helen delivered the leprosy cure, mothered orphans, cared for the excluded, sick and poor. Their partners helped establish 80 churches, translate the Bible and run 24 clinics. They deepened their faith in spiritual battle against sorcery and corruption. The Eidsens sought to empower the powerless and raise a family despite revolution, disease and disability. Back in Canada, Helen took in the homeless and Ben became president of Steinbach Bible College. As first chancellor, he continues a counseling, healing prayer ministry.
