The girl was drawn deeper into the heart of the garden, led by an invisible force that seemed to understand her deepest desires. It was as if the roses themselves held the key to unlocking the mysteries of her soul.

As she wandered through the maze of rose-covered paths, Lily stumbled upon a charming stone bench nestled beneath a canopy of climbing vines. With a sense of serenity and curiosity, she sat down, her eyes fixed upon the kaleidoscope of roses that surrounded her.

Lost in her thoughts, Lily began to imagine the stories behind each rose. The first one, a delicate pink rose, reminded her of young love and innocent romance. Its petals seemed to blush with every passing breeze, as if reliving whispered sweet nothings.

Beside it, a vibrant red rose spoke of fiery passion and unyielding devotion. Its thorns, an emblem of the trials endured in the pursuit of love, only added to its allure. Lily's heart skipped a beat as she imagined the passion and intensity this rose held within its petals.

Further along, she discovered a mesmerizing white rose, symbolizing purity and grace. Its petals were as delicate as a feather, reflecting the purity of a heart untouched by the harsh realities of the world. Lily felt a sense of calm wash over her as she admired its ethereal beauty.

Lily spent hours immersed in the stories the roses whispered to her soul. She witnessed tales of love and heartache, of triumph and defeat, and of life's remarkable ability to heal and renew. The garden became her sanctuary, a place where she could find solace and inspiration in the simple yet profound beauty of nature.

Along the trails of endless pines, I search for truth and follow signs.

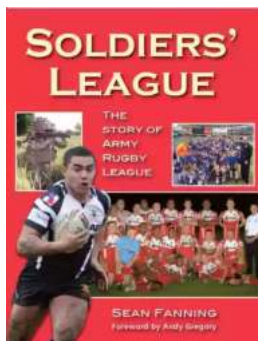

How's your summer going? Mine is ruined.

Hi. My name is Ri. I'm the kind of delinquent teenage girl you hear horror stories about.

My parents thought they could reform my "bad" attitude and get me away from my "troublemaking" friends in the city by shipping me off to my grandparents' house in the countryside for the summer. I'm supposed to stay clear of the "forbidden" forest and piss away my days in my grandparents' stupid rose garden alongside a boy named Avery.

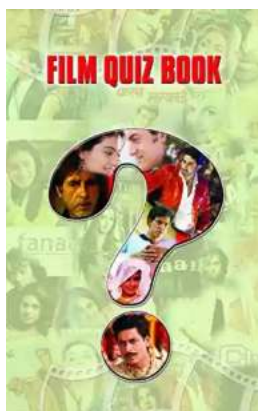

Avery is seventeen, but he chooses to work for my grandparents because he likes roses.

Well, the joke's on them. I'm getting the hell out of here, and I won't let anyone stop me—especially not some weirdo boy.
