The : A Gist of "The Hero Is Overpowered But Overly Cautious"

Created by Light Tuchihi and illustrated by Saori Toyota, "The Hero Is Overpowered But Overly Cautious" is a Japanese fantasy novel series that has garnered immense popularity both within Japan and internationally. This light novel takes the traditional "hero saves the world" concept and turns it on its head by introducing an overly cautious hero who plans meticulously and overprepares for every single encounter.

The story revolves around the Goddess Ristarte, who is tasked with summoning a hero from parallel worlds to save the chaotic S-ranked world of Gaeabrande. She chooses Seiya Ryuuguuin, a hero with extraordinary stats and powers, but there's one catch – he is incredibly cautious. Seiya's extreme cautiousness often leads him to train excessively, double-check every spell, and even overstock on healing items. While his over-the-top attitude frustrates the Goddess at times, it also ensures his victory in every battle.
