1. Who is Rob Murphy?

Rob Murphy, a financial innovator and aviation enthusiast, has been a key player in the aircraft financing industry for over two decades. With his extensive knowledge of the field and unparalleled expertise, Rob has helped countless individuals and organizations realize their aviation dreams. His passion for flying coupled with his strong financial background has made him a well-respected authority in the industry.

2. The Importance of Aircraft Financing

When it comes to acquiring an aircraft, financing plays a crucial role for many aspirational aviators. The cost of aircraft ownership can be substantial, often beyond what a typical individual or organization can afford upfront. Aircraft financing offers a viable solution, enabling individuals and companies to spread the cost over a period of time. By accessing external funding, owning an aircraft becomes more accessible and affordable.

3. Types of Aircraft Financing

Rob Murphy is a passionate advocate for the democratization of aircraft ownership. He believes that everyone should have the opportunity to experience the thrill of flying. To make this a reality, Rob has diversified the range of aircraft financing options available for aspiring aviators. From traditional bank loans, lease financing to fractional ownership, the path to aircraft ownership has never been more within reach.

3.1 Bank Loans

Bank loans are a common financing option for aircraft purchases. With favorable interest rates and flexible payment schedules, banks are often the go-to choice for many individuals. Rob Murphy's expertise in this area equips aspiring aviators with the necessary knowledge and advice to secure a bank loan tailored to their needs.

3.2 Lease Financing

Lease financing offers a more flexible approach to aircraft ownership, particularly for those seeking short-term commitments. Rob Murphy's curated lease financing options provide aviators an opportunity to enjoy the freedom of flying while avoiding the long-term commitment typically associated with aircraft ownership.

3.3 Fractional Ownership

Rob Murphy's groundbreaking fractional ownership model has revolutionized the way aspiring aviators can enjoy aircraft ownership. By owning a fraction of an aircraft, individuals can access the skies while sharing the associated costs with other co-owners. Rob's expertise in this area ensures a smooth and hassle-free fractional ownership experience.

4. The Aircraft Financing Process

Understanding the aircraft financing process is essential for a successful journey towards aircraft ownership. Rob Murphy's step-by-step guide simplifies and demystifies this process, making it more accessible to individuals of all backgrounds.

Aircraft are mainly bought by two groups of buyers:

1. Airlines for their own use
2. Operating lessors for onward leasing to airlines

Both groups of buyers require substantial external funding, both debt and equity, to accommodate these purchases.

Historically five key sources have funded the aviation industry:

1. bank debt (secured and unsecured)
2. export credit agency guaranteed debt (secured)
3. capital markets (secured and unsecured bonds; equity and debt solutions)
4. internal cash flow generation
5. tax based leasing products

This is the leading text providing guidance on all the funding options available, the best way to secure funding and how to ensure that robust legal structures framing the commercial deal are in place.

The book is divided into four core sections:

Part A: Market Context which sets the scene giving the user market context and an overview of aircraft financing

Part B: Transaction structuring which looks at the credit, the asset, the legal structuring and tax drivers

Part C: Core Products and Regional Markets (Brazil, Russia, India, China, France, Germany, Spain and Japan)

Part D: Regulatory Matters including accounting developments

Key updates for the new Fifth Edition include:

- New chapters on:
- The environment
- Restructuring
- Compliance
- GATS (Global Aircrafts Trading Systems (GATS))
- Full explanation and analysis of recent regulatory changes including changes brought about by Basel IV

Due to the complexities involved in this area and the need to ensure that any commercial deal is legally sound Aircraft Financing is the essential reference tool for anyone involved in aircraft financing transactions.
