I was doing some work for an embassy, putting in pot lights and a trim border. There was an open laptop that held the diary of some Tricked Isis bride. The custodian caught me reading it but gave me permission to send it to my email so I could publish it. He said it would warn others not to follow in bad footsteps. I am not sure if she was ever rescued. I think, once you read the story in this diary, that you'll agree it needs to be told. That way other foolish young women won't become victims of ISIS.
