The first pillar of his fighting style is the mastery of defense. Montgomery understands that protecting oneself is paramount in any combat situation. He possesses a natural instinct for evading attacks, utilizing his footwork and head movement to weave through incoming strikes. This defensive prowess allows him to conserve energy and wait for the perfect moment to strike back.

Secondly, Montgomery's offense is a symphony of controlled aggression. Every punch and kick he throws carries extraordinary power and is backed by an unparalleled understanding of body mechanics. His strikes can deliver devastating blows capable of ending a fight in an instant. Combined with lightning-fast reflexes, Montgomery is a tornado of offensive precision.

Furthermore, Tykenjo incorporates a variety of martial arts techniques into his style. From the fluid footwork of boxing to the bone-crushing kicks of Muay Thai, Montgomery seamlessly blends different disciplines to form a unique and unpredictable style. This versatility keeps his opponents off balance and allows him to adapt to any situation that may arise within the fight.

The Mental Fortitude: The X-Factor Behind Tykenjo's Success

Beyond his physical attributes, Montgomery's mental fortitude sets him apart from his adversaries. He possesses an unbreakable spirit and an unwavering belief in his abilities. Whether facing a formidable opponent or overcoming personal challenges, Tykenjo exercises a relentless drive to always push forward.

One key aspect that fuels his mental strength is his rigorous training regimen. Montgomery embraces the grind, pushing his body to its limits day in and day out. From intense strength and conditioning sessions to relentless sparring, he molds both his body and mind into a formidable weapon. This unyielding dedication allows him to maintain focus and composure in the face of adversity.

In addition, Tykenjo's mindset is shaped by his profound love for the sport. Fighting is not merely a profession for him; it is a way of life. This genuine passion radiates through every aspect of his fighting style, captivating audiences worldwide. Montgomery's love for the sport fuels his determination and compels him to leave nothing on the table each time he steps into the ring.

In real life confrontations, things escalate quite quickly. The majority of the damage inflicted in a street fight takes place within the first 30 seconds. And no one is going to stop the clock for you to catch your breath or gather your wits.

As the weight increases, so does the likelihood of a knock-out. Tykenjo applies those principles to Self-Defense. You might already be the biggest guy on the block, but learning to protect yourself and the ones you love will save your life. You need speed, agility, and razor-sharp focus.

From the mind and martial arts practice of Jafar Bey, comes the heavyweight art of Tykenjo. A sister art of Kajukenbo. Its birthplace, Tysons Corner, Virginia. Influenced by film study of "The Gentleman of Boxing" Floyd Patterson, "Iron" Mike Tyson and Jon "Bones" Jones.

Tykenjo will infuse self-defense tactics with Gung Fu, with a focus on:

- Peek-a-boo Boxing.

- * Muay Thai.

4 Collegiate wrestling.

Jafar Bey's cutting edge techniques will teach you how to tap into your unconscious mind and easily dismiss distractions while applying the framework of the most deadly martial arts into an organic fusion. Become the weapon you need to be to stand up for what you believe in.

In the path, we are one. And we will not be tread upon. Welcome to heavyweight Tykenjo.
