From its magnificent cities to its enduring legacies, this mighty empire continues to captivate the imagination of history enthusiasts across the globe. In this Junior Scholars edition, we delve into the bustling streets of Rome, unearthing intriguing stories and incredible facts that will ignite the curiosity of young minds.

Ancient Rome: A City That Ruled the World

Imagine walking through the awe-inspiring city of Rome, the capital of an empire that once spanned three continents. The beating heart of ancient Rome was its forum, a sprawling complex filled with temples, markets, and government buildings. Filled with the hustle and bustle of trade and politics, the Roman Forum stood as a testament to the power and grandeur of this remarkable civilization. As we explore the ruins today, glimpses of its former glory emerge, revealing a rich tapestry of history waiting to be unraveled.

Within the city walls, Junior Scholars will discover the iconic Colosseum, a monumental amphitheater renowned for its gladiatorial contests. Step into the shoes of an ancient Roman citizen and feel the excitement as you witness these breathtaking spectacles at the very spot where they once took place. The Colosseum's towering arches and majestic ruins will transport you back in time, offering a vivid glimpse into the lives of both spectators and performers.
