One mother, Sarah, found herself torn between her education and the new life growing inside her. Despite her initial fears and doubts, she chose to embrace this unplanned journey and found a strength she never knew existed. Through sheer determination, Sarah became an inspiration to those around her, proving that unexpected hurdles can lead to the most extraordinary accomplishments.

The Support System

Throughout these stories, a common thread is the importance of a strong support system. Friends, family, and even strangers became pillars of strength for these individuals, helping to navigate the complex emotions and uncertainties that come with an unplanned pregnancy.

Jack, a devoted partner and soon-to-be father, shares his experience and highlights the essential role of unwavering support during this unexpected time. His uplifting story showcases the transformation that occurs when two people choose to face an unplanned pregnancy together, ultimately becoming stronger both as individuals and as a couple.

The Gift of Love

While unplanned pregnancies may disrupt the course of life, they also bring about immeasurable love and joy. One cannot deny the special bond that forms between parent and child when faced with the unexpected. These stories celebrate the love that transcends any initial doubts or fears.

From the struggles of single parenting to the joys of adopting a child, the stories shared here delve into the depths of what it means to truly love unconditionally.

Each parent, in their unique circumstances, found a way to embrace the unexpected and build a beautiful life for their child.

The Unforeseen Blessings

As each story unfolds, it becomes apparent that unplanned pregnancies bring forth unforeseen blessings. Whether it be personal growth, newfound strength, or a deeper understanding of love, the unexpected journey opens doors that were once unimaginable.

These stories remind us that life doesn't always adhere to our plans. Through courage and perseverance, individuals facing unplanned pregnancies discovered not only the beauty that lies within challenges but also the resilience of the human spirit.

What Has Your Sister Done? is a collection of true stories about young women and their unplanned pregnancy. Some have kept their babies while others placed their babies for adoption or terminated their pregnancies through abortion. Because many aspects of unplanned pregnancy aren't talked about, these stories are shared in hopes they will give light, a voice, a way to heal and help others in the same situation. Having had her own unplanned pregnancy, author Laura Lofgreen wanted to understand the diversity of challenges and strengths these young women experienced and in the end, how their stories are more powerful than they ever realized.
